

Ozzie (Oscar) P. is a highly talented and motivated student. Creative by nature, Ozzie is a prolific writer with a voice beyond his years. He is highly self-motivated and pushes himself to produce work of the highest quality each and every day. He is inquisitive about life and thinks deeply about social issues. Ozzie has a wonderful sense of humor, is kind and caring, Despite his many talents, Ozzie is uniquely humble.

Extracurricularly, Ozzie is equally impressive. He plays Babe Ruth baseball, Team Tugman Wrestling, City Climb rock climbing, and is involved with the Play More Chess Academy. He volunteers for the school Rubix Cube Club and participates in the after-school book club.

Camille (Maren) P. is a leader in the school community, as well as a high academic achiever. Camille is an extraordinary student with an inquisitive mind, an extremely talented writer, and can always be found with a book in her hand. Academically, Camille always produces high-quality work, seeks to challenge herself, and asks teachers for feedback on her work. She is consistently determined to be her best, and also pushes others to be their best selves as well. Camille is kind, respectful and always willing to help any peer or teacher, no matter the situation. She plays clarinet in the school band, but also knows how to play the cello and is also currently learning the ukulele.

Camille is extremely passionate about helping the environment and doing anything to stop the effects of climate change. She organized a school-wide “Save the Trees” spirit day at our school, for which all the money collected was donated to the organization One Tree Planted, which helps to plant trees across the world. She is also a volunteer of our school’s “Green Team”, which is a food waste diversion program that supports recycling, composting, and food share initiatives.

Camille is also very involved in the community outside of school as well. She is an active member of her soccer, swimming, and tennis teams. In her free time, Camille also enjoys roller skating, skiing, and doing anything that allows her to be creative or artistic. Congratulations on this extremely well-deserved honor, Camille!
