

Sixth-grade student Annabelle J. was awarded October's Hamden Superintendent Student of the Month. Superintendent Gary Highsmith presented Annabelle with a certificate of honor at a ceremony held at Hamden Public School's central office. Annabelle was recognized for both her strong academics and her ability to demonstrate kindness to all. She has a unique ability to unite people and make people smile. Annabelle excels academically in all subjects and enjoys creative writing. In her free time, she can often be found writing and directing small plays to perform with the class. Congratulations Annabelle!
