

1. Early Intervention Strategies

Before school personnel refer a student to a Planning and Placement Team, alternative strategies and programs in regular education are explored and, where appropriate, implemented. See Chapter 1, Student Identification, for more detailed information on locating students who may have a disability and need special education.