

Administration

Job Descriptions -- Administration

The Superintendent will develop administrative job descriptions and review them with the Board of Education as needed. These job descriptions will be kept on file in each school office and in the Board of Education Office for public inspection during normal working hours.