ADMINISTRATIVE REGULATIONS REGARDING USE OF SOCIAL MEDIA

The Board of Education recognizes the importance and utility of social media for its employees, and acknowledges that its employees have the right under the First Amendment, in certain circumstances, to speak out on matters of public concern. In accordance with the provisions of the First Amendment, the Board will regulate the use of social media by employees, including employees’ personal use of social media, when such use:

1) interferes, disrupts or undermines the effective operation of the school district;
2) is used to engage in harassing, defamatory, obscene, abusive, discriminatory or threatening or similarly inappropriate communications;
3) creates a hostile work environment;
4) breaches confidentiality obligations of school district employees;
5) harms the goodwill and reputation of the school district in the community; or
6) violates the law, board policies and/or other school rules and regulations.

Definitions:

Social media includes, but is not limited to, social networking sites, such as Twitter, Instagram, Facebook, LinkedIn, and YouTube.

Board of Education includes all names, logos, buildings, images and entities under the authority of the Board of Education.

Rules Concerning Personal Social Media Activity

1. An employee may not mention, discuss or reference the Board of Education, the school district or its individual schools, programs or teams on personal social networking sites in a manner that could reasonably be construed as an official school district communication, unless the employee also states within the communication that such communication is the personal view of the employee of the school district and that the views expressed are the employee’s alone and do not represent the views of the school district or the Board of Education.

2. Employees must use caution in mentioning other Board of Education employees or other members of the school community (e.g., parents or others) on personal social networking sites, without such individuals' express consent unless the employee is addressing an issue of public concern and the employee's speech falls under applicable constitutional protections pertaining to same. Such postings are outside of the employee's job responsibilities, and employees are subject to potential liability as described in paragraph 6, below.

3. Employees are required to maintain appropriate professional boundaries with students, parents, and colleagues. For example, on Facebook, absent an unrelated online relationship (e.g., relative, family friend, or personal friendship unrelated to school), it is not appropriate for a teacher or administrator to “friend” a student or his/her parent or guardian or otherwise establish special relationships with selected students through personal social media, and it is not appropriate for an employee to give students or parents access to personal postings unrelated to school.

4. Unless given written consent, employees may not use the Board of Education’s logo or trademarks in their personal posts. Please note that this prohibition extends to the use of logos or trademarks associated with individual schools, programs or teams of the school district.

5. Employees are expected to refrain from engaging in harassing, defamatory, obscene, abusive, discriminatory, threatening or similarly inappropriate communications in their personal social media posts. Such communications reflect poorly on the school district's reputation, can affect the educational process and may substantially and materially interfere with an employee's ability to fulfill his/her professional responsibilities.

6. Employees are required to comply with all Board of Education policies and procedures with respect to the use of computer equipment, networks or electronic devices when accessing social media sites. Any access to personal social media activities while on school property or using school district equipment must comply with those policies, and may not interfere with an employee's duties at work.

7. The Board of Education reserves the right to monitor all employee use of district computers and other electronic devices, including social networking activity. An employee should have no expectation of personal privacy in any personal communication.

made through social media while using district owned or provided technology and district provided internet access.

8. All posts on personal social media must comply with the Board of Education’s policies concerning confidentiality, including confidentiality of student information.

9. An employee may not link a personal social media site or web page to the Board of Education’s web site or the web sites of individual schools, programs or teams; or post Board of Education material on a social media site or web page.

10. All Board of Education policies that regulate off-duty conduct apply to social media activity including, but not limited to, policies related to public trust, illegal harassment, code of conduct, and protecting confidential information.

Rules Concerning District-Sponsored Social Media Activity

1. In order for an employee to use social media sites as an educational tool or in relation to extracurricular activities or programs of the school district, the employee must seek and obtain the permission of his/her supervisor prior to setting up the site.

2. If an employee wishes to use Facebook™ or other similar social media site to communicate meetings, activities, games, responsibilities, announcements etc., for a school-based club or a school-based activity or an official school-based organization, or an official sports team, the employee must also comply with the following rules:

   a. The employee must set up the club, etc. as a group list which will be "closed" (e.g. membership in the group is limited to students, parents and appropriate school personnel, and “monitored” (e.g. the employee has the ability to access and supervise communications on the social media site).

   b. When Facebook, or similar social media sites, is used as the social media site, members will not be established as “friends”, but as members of the group list. When other social media sites are used, the employee will establish a similar parameter on the basis of the functionality of the social media site utilized.
c. Anyone who has access to the communications conveyed through the site may only gain access by the permission of the employee (e.g. teacher, administrator, supervisor or coach). Persons desiring to access the page may join only after the employee invites them and allows them to join.
d. Parents shall be permitted to access any page that their child has been invited to join.
e. Access to the page may only be permitted for educational purposes related to the club, activity, organization or team.
f. The employee responsible for the page will monitor it regularly.
g. The employee’s supervisor shall be permitted access to any page established by the employee for a school-related purpose.
h. Employees are required to maintain appropriate professional boundaries in the establishment and maintenance of all such district-sponsored social media activity.

3. Employees are required to refrain from making harassing, defamatory, obscene, abusive, discriminatory or threatening or similarly inappropriate statements in their social media communications on district-sponsored sites.

4. Employees are required to comply with all Board of Education policies and procedures and all applicable laws with respect to the use of computer equipment, networks or devices when accessing district-sponsored social media sites.

   a. See Board of Education Policy 6141.322 for protocols and rules regarding display of student photos and student work on the Internet. All protocols and rules described in that policy apply to all Social Media publishing.

5. The Board of Education reserves the right to monitor all employee use of district computers and other electronic devices, including employee social networking activity. An employee should have no expectation of personal privacy in any communication made through social media while using district owned or provided technology and district provided internet access.

6. All communications through district-sponsored social media must comply with the Board of Education’s policies concerning confidentiality, including the confidentiality of student information. If an employee is considering sharing information and is unsure about the confidential nature of the information, the employee shall consult with his/her supervisor prior to communicating such information.
