

Students

Assignment to Classes

The Superintendent or designee will assign any student entering the Hamden School System for the first time to an appropriate class.

The Superintendent or designee may assign a student to a special education class on the recommendation of the Planning and Placement Team and after consultation with parents or guardian.

Legal Reference: Connecticut General Statutes

10-221(b) Boards of Education to prescribe rules